Car users at hospital still block the streets

STAFF at a Black Country hospital are continuing to clog surrounding streets with cars despite the opening of a new 691-space car park at the site, residents claim.

People living near Russells Hall Hospital, Dudley, say workers are blocking nearby roads with their cars for up to 12 hours at a time, leaving residents unable to park outside their own homes.

It had been hoped that the hospital's new £6 million staff car park, which opened in December, would help to resolve the problem of on-street parking.

But last week, residents claimed the multi-storey had not made any difference. At Brierley Hill Area Committee, they told councillors that vehicles were still being left in Poets Corner, Tennyson Street, Milton Street and Byron Street.

They want the council to be stricter on issuing parking tickets to Russells Hall workers causing problems in streets around the hospital. Dudley Council director of urban environment John Millar said he would look into the issue and contact the hospital.

Insight into a glittering past

TALES of Stourbridge's waterways and their links to the town's world famous glass industry will be told by a renowned canal expert.

Writer and broadcaster Graham Fisher MBE will host a walking series – Jewels on the Cut. Walks will take place on April 30, May 22, June 25, July 24 and August 29.

Mr Fisher has also written a book to accompany the walks. For details or to book telephone 01384 812745.

First phase of hall rebuild is complete

THE first phase of restoration work has been completed on Corngreaves Hall as part of a £3 million project to bring the building back into use.

The Grade II-listed building in Cradley Heath, dating back to 1780, has been empty for the last 60 years, with more than £1m of damage caused by vandals and lead thieves. It is now being developed into homes by Worcester-based GR8 Space.

Plasterer found safe

A SELF-EMPLOYED plasterer from Quarry Bank who went missing has been found by police. Andrew Moore, aged 40, was last seen leaving his home at 6.30am last Thursday. He was found safe and well at 12.30pm on Saturday by officers from West Mercia Police in his car on the A491.

STAFF CLAMOUR FOR EXIT PAY-OFF

MORE than 1,100 staff at Dudley Council have applied for voluntary redundancy, it has emerged. And new figures show the authority could have to pay up to £6 million this year to cover the cost of workers leaving.

More than 400 posts are due to go in the next few months under council plans to axe a total of 800 over the next three years. The authority needs to save £22m between April this year and March 2012.

Benefactor in £37,500 coach gift to school

A MYSTERY benefactor has stumped up £37,500 so that a Dudley school can buy a much-needed coach.

The Brier School in Kingswinford, which deals with special needs pupils, was struggling to fund hire fees and was on the verge of cutting back on its transport service.

Staff had applied to the Variety Club Midlands charity to help find funding for a Sunshine Coach early last year and expected a long wait for a new vehicle. The charity normally takes two years to raise funds from corporate and individual sponsors.

Thankful

But a Variety Club benefactor, who wishes to remain anonymous, felt so strongly about the cause the donation was made in a single gift.

The specially-adapted Sunshine Coach will save the school around £6,000 a year in hire fees – funds which now will be used for the benefit of the children. Head teacher Russell Hinton said: "We're thankful for the very generous donation."

The school, in Bromley Lane, accommodates 144 children aged four to 16 who have moderate learning difficulties and complex communication issues. The 17-seater coach was presented to the school on Tuesday.

The school previously leased two coaches from Dudley Council.

The council has been accepting applications for voluntary redundancy as part of its cost-cutting plans.

New figures revealed this week show that 1,128 requests for voluntary redundancy were received by February 2.

However, 535 have been turned down on the basis that the council cannot lose the posts.

Some 325 requests have been deemed "acceptable" and are currently being progressed with the workers concerned.

Another 268 will undergo further consideration before council bosses decide whether they can lose the positions. Bosses say that in a number of departments too many volunteers have come forward, which has led to "selection pools" being established to determine who is most suitable to go.

Compulsory

A report which was due before the council's cabinet yesterday (Wednesday) says it is likely that some compulsory redundancies will still be required.

Council spokesman Chris Howes said: "We are unable to put a cost on redundancies at this stage but we have built in an allowance into our budget to borrow up to £6m to cover any eventual costs."

The money will cover the cost of those who go during this financial year.

A decision on successful applications will be made by March 31 while any further compulsory redundancies will be announced by May 31. Staff have also been offered the chance to reduce their working hours to help cut the number of job losses.

Meanwhile, Staffordshire County Council is planning to shed up to 500 jobs to cope with Government cuts.

South Staffordshire Council launched a voluntary redundancy scheme last year.

Catering students Henrietta Norton-Kent and Daniel Clarke help promote Valentine's day

Cupid offers tasty dishes

LOVE will be in the air at Halesowen College when catering students hold a romantic Valentine's night celebration.

A special hearts and flowers menu is on offer on February 14 in the training restaurant at the Whittingham Road campus.

The menu includes starters of crispy chicken sausage on a bed of buttered leeks and herb dressing and vegetable terrine served with a red pepper coulis.

Main courses on offer will be monkfish and scallops in a lime leaf, chilli and coconut sauce on a bed of thai noodles or herb crusted roast best end of lamb with redcurrant jus as well as a selection of desserts.

Students plan the menu, prepare the food as well as organise the service and decorate the restaurant. Call the booking centre on 0121 602 7799 to reserve a place.

It's flaming chips again for fireman's last shout

AFTER 30 years service, firefighter Jon Mucklow was more than prepared to tackle flames when his crew got an "emergency" call to a chippie.

But the shout to Ivan's Chip Shop, in Reddal Hill Road, Cradley Heath, was in fact a smokescreen for a surprise retirement party.

The Cradley crew commander was all smiles when he was instead treated to a fish and chip supper at the chippie in to mark his last shift with green watch.

Jon said: "This is amazing. I had no idea they were planning this. The station is only about 300 yards down the road and I was worried we wouldn't get our breathing gear on before we pulled up outside. This is really good - they got me good and proper." He was escorted on the call-out by colleagues Rudy Parkes, Scott Worton, Lee Gubbins, Chris Darby and Matt Haines with the blessing of senior bosses who arranged cover for the fire station.

Skinner is frank on challenge

BLACK Country comedian Frank Skinner today spoke of his bid to help raise more than £1 million for Comic Relief.

Skinner, along with Stephen Fry, Jimmy Carr and Al Murray, are doing battle with their own limited edition Walkers crisps flavours, with 5p from every pack for the charity.

The comedian whose flavour raises the most money wins, while the losing three will be waxed in public by TV presenter Denise Van Outen.

Baggies fan Skinner, from Oldbury, whose flavour is Frank Roast Dinner, said: "The big upside of this is that Walkers will give five pence for every bag sold to Comic Relief."

Daughter

Jon served with the Royal Engineers in Northern Ireland and Germany after signing up, aged 16, straight from school in Halesowen where he grew up.

Rudy, green watch commander, said: "Jon has been a true firefighter right to his last shift."

The father-of-two served at Highgate and Woodgate Valley stations, in Birmingham, before being promoted to Cradley 15 years ago.

Jon was joined at the party last week by wife Michaela, daughter Briony, aged 21, her partner Simon, 24, son Sam, 12, and two-week-old granddaughter Maisey.

Ancient market to get £6m facelift

DUDLEY'S ailing market place will be given a £6million facelift aimed at attracting more shoppers to the town. A bid for funding is being drawn up.

Stalls will be given a revamp and the ageing toilet block removed to create an unobstructed view across the town to Dudley Castle.

The town's 19th century fountain, which has fallen into disrepair, will also be restored to its former glory as part of the proposals being drawn up by Dudley Council.

A funding appeal for half of the £3m needed to get the project off the ground will be submitted to the European Regional Development Fund (ERDF).

Funding

The money will help council planners to finalise the scheme in a bid to attract further funding.

Deputy Council deputy leader Councillor Les Jones said: "We need to secure the funding. We will then hold a consultation with the market traders."

Market trader David Flavell, aged 50, who has run his fruit and veg stall for 14 years, welcomed the news but feared it would not be enough to boost trade. "If the council wants to boost trade we need free car parks and incentives to get the bigger shops in," he said.

Service is hit by weighty problem

MORE than £300,000 has been spent on specialised ambulance equipment to cope with the increasing number of obesity cases in the West Midlands.

West Midlands Ambulance Service has bought four specialist bariatric ambulances – vehicles with extra wide ramps and strengthened floors – to ferry the heaviest patients around.

Figures released under the Freedom of Information Act reveal the vehicles can cost up to £90,000 each.

They are equipped with double-width trolley stretchers which cost up to £10,000 each and are able to support patients weighing up to 50 stone.

Cushions

They also feature hoists and inflatable lifting cushions, which cost around £2,500. If the ambulances have their tail-lifts reinforced, that costs an additional £800. Meanwhile, standard ambulances are being equipped with heavy-duty wheelchairs, stretchers and lifting cushions.

Ambulance trusts across the country are facing a similar expense. Every trust in England, Northern Ireland, Wales and Scotland has confirmed the changes. Jo Webber, director of the Ambulance Service Network, said ambulance bosses had been left with no option.

Hospital car park short on spaces, claims union

DUDLEY'S main hospital is 200 car parking spaces short of the minimum number it needs for workers following controversial changes, union of officials fear.

Unison says there are not enough spots for all of the staff who would qualify for a parking pass at Russells Hall Hospital.

But the hospital trust, which runs the site, said it was still assessing how many spaces were required. Bosses are now arranging meetings with staff to get their views next month. Passes will then be issued to staff according to new criteria.

Assessments will include how far workers live from the site and how often they need to use their car during the course of the working day.

There are 1,123 staff spaces at the site including 691 at the multi-storey car park. More than 3,000 workers had applied for permits for Russells Hall and the Guest Hospitals in Dudley and the Corbett Hospital in Stourbridge.

All applicants have been granted temporary access to the car parks while arrangements are finalised. But Unison representative Tracy Wood said she had been told there was a shortfall of 200 spaces.

"I have been told they are 200 spaces short for the staff so at the moment it is still free for all," she said.

Dudley Group of Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust chief executive Paula Clark, said: "We are carrying out capacity exercises on different days over a number of weeks to assess what the requirement is. When we have finished this exercise we will then be able to consider any shortfall."

Regulations

The new parking arrangements were thrown into chaos after private firms, which run some hospital services, said they would not be able to apply the new rules to their workers.

Bosses are still working to resolve the issue.

The trust says it has been forced to restrict parking spaces to one for every four workers due to council regulations when it applied for planning permission for the new multi-storey in 2008.

Centro budget slashed by £3m

MORE than £3 million is to be slashed off the budget for public transport this year. Centro, which was set up by the councils of the West Midlands to oversee public transport and pay for travel for pensioners and the disabled, will see its budget cut from £153.7m to £150m in 2011-12.

Bosses are now trying to bring in savings including cutting the £12.4m a year cost of running Ring and Ride services for the elderly and disabled by £930,000.

Disused house set to be razed

A HOUSE just yards from Broadfield House Glass Museum in Kingswinford will be demolished to make way for a new housing development.

The house, off Barnett Lane, is derelict.

Developer Kendrick Homes was successful in gaining permission to tear down the disused property and clear the site. In its place, six four-bedroom houses will be built. A number of mature trees and part of an existing boundary wall will be retained.

Councillors had insisted that clauses were inserted into the planning permission to make sure that the trees and the wall were protected.

Planning committee member Councillor Geoffrey Southall said the wall gave the area "character" and "should not be taken down for the sake of it".

Museum's T-rex skullduggery

Operations manager John Billingham with the new tyrannosaurus rex head casting

THE terrifying T-rex has been brought to life at a new exhibition in Dudley.

Sixty-five million years after the dinosaur walked the earth, a 7ft-long replica has roared into the Black Country. Curators at Dudley Museum and Art Gallery found the cast of a skull fossil in a Cambridge warehouse.

The cast had been taken from a famous skeleton discovered by archaeologists in 1987, in South Dakota, America.

It is nicknamed Stan after amateur fossil hunter Stan Sacrison who made the discovery. Curators spent £4,800 on acquiring the model thanks to a legacy left in the will of former museum officer Jane Carney. It will take centre-stage at the entrance to the museum, in St James's Road, Dudley.

The museum's operations manager John Billingham says the model will be the centrepiece of a new display on dinosaurs.

Discount store to improve entrance

PROBLEMS at a Black Country traffic blackspot are poised to improve with the overhaul of a nightmare junction.

Drivers have been putting their lives at risk performing dangerous right-hand turns into the Lidl superstore in Blackheath from Archer Way after a central reservation was installed.

The reservation, put in when the store was built, has also led to tailbacks.

Now the discount chain is to team up with transport chiefs to change the layout, footing the bill of tens of thousands of pounds itself.

Blackheath councillor Mary Docker is among those who have been voicing her concerns to the Highways Department since Lidl opened.

Reviewed

Despite the central reservation being brought in to prevent cars from turning right into the store, motorists have continued to ignore the rules.

It is understood the scheme has been in the pipeline for a year and the costs of removing the reservation and realigning the access to the store to create a new right hand turn will not cost Sandwell Council taxpayers a penny.

Councillor Docker said: "Lidl have reviewed the current arrangements and the proposal is to remove the existing central reservation and realign the entrance to Park Street so that a right turn can be made into Park Street from Archer Way."

CDs sound Last Post for buglers

THE bugle call has played a key part in military ceremonies for centuries – but now veterans are using recordings because of a shortage of musicians.

The problem is so widespread that manufacturers have started to make electronic versions of the classic bugle, which can blast out The Last Post and Reveille.

The new device looks like a real bugle but is operated by simply pressing a button.

The Dudley branch of the Royal British Legion, based in Hall Street, has been awarded a £3,000 grant by the local area committee, some of which will be used to purchase one of the new electronic bugles.

Difficult

Mike Morris, chairman of the South Staffordshire legion, which covers Wolverhampton, Walsall, and most of Sandwell and Dudley, said qualified buglers were becoming scarce.

"It is a problem affecting branches across the region. I have a CD of The Last Post which I use at church services and things like that at the Penn branch."

The Dudley branch chairman, Councillor Malcolm Davis, said

Royal British Legion's South Staffs County vice-chairman, Derrick Morton with a CD of the Last Post

the number of occasions where the military music was played far exceeded the number of available buglers. Good bugle players are difficult to get hold of.

"We do a lot of memorial funerals for soldiers who want military honours when they die, as well as for services of Remembrance."

Quarry Bank branch events organiser Gloria Donovan said they were fortunate to know a bugler who performed at Remembrance services. At other times, including military funerals, they have to take a CD or a tape.

"I think an electronic bugle is a wonderful idea," she said.

Library closes doors for redecoration

A LIBRARY in Dudley has closed for a week as the building is redecorated.

New self-service equipment and a front desk, costing £13,500, are being installed at Sedgley Library. Walls are being given a fresh lick of paint and new carpets laid as part of the improvement work.

The library, in Ladies Walk, Sedgley, is due to reopen this Saturday, February 12.

Dudley Council's cabinet member for housing, Councillor David Simms, said: "It's great to see improvements being made to the library which will make it a more welcoming environment for visitors."

The redecoration is being carried out and paid for by the company which owns the Ladies Walk building, as part of a Private Finance Initiative agreement with the council.

Councillor Simms said the council was taking the opportunity during the closure to introduce new self-service equipment to free up staff time to serve visitors to the library.

In the meantime borrowers have been advised that can go to nearby libraries in Dudley, Colecley and Gornal.

Cradley Library, in Colley Lane, Cradley, is due to reopen on Monday, February 14, after a month-long refurbishment project and essential repair works costing almost £20,000.

Anger as flytipping attracts vermin

RESIDENTS are campaigning for action over a derelict site in Dudley which they say has become a magnet for fly tippers and anti-social behaviour.

They say it is becoming a health hazard as vermin and foxes are being attracted by the piles of rubbish.

A row of six garages in Leabank Road, Netherton, was demolished after being repeatedly attacked by arsonists. The Dudley Council-owned area has been fenced off, but there is no sign of it being cleared.

Anne Gregory, aged 54, of Heath Road, said she feared her property was being devalued by the mess.

Regularly

She said: "We have been calling for this to be re-developed since 2008. It's horrible having rats and mice scurrying around outside your house."

"We often hear smashing glass and shouting around the back, and the piles of rubbish are disgusting."

Dudley Council spokeswoman Katherine Finney said: "The site has been declared surplus to the council's requirements and the authority is currently considering selling the land."

"The site is inspected regularly and reports of fly tipping can be made to Dudley Council Plus."

£1,000 gift for air dash mercy service

Employees at Co-Op Logistics raising money for the Air Ambulance at a monthly golf event

STAFF from a Halesowen distribution company have celebrated a year of fundraising by donating more than £1,000 to a rapid response charity.

Co-op Logistics, which has a frozen food depot on Amber Way, handed over the cheque to Midlands Air Ambulance after taking part in a variety of fundraising activities during 2010.

Around 250 depot employees took part in monthly golf competitions, a sponsored car wash, a World Cup barbeque and several coffee and cake mornings.

The majority of the money was raised through an annual December raffle which gave participants the chance to win a signed England rugby shirt and an Aston Villa stadium tour.

A total of £1274.31 was donated to Midlands Air Ambulance with nearly £200 coming from the sale of the charity's merchandise.

Delighted

Lisa Cappetta, training coordinator at Co-Op Logistics, said: "We had a vote at the beginning of last year amongst all the employees and it was decided that Midlands Air Ambulance would be our charity of choice."

"With it being a local charity it received total support and I'm delighted to be able to hand over this money to such a worthwhile cause." The money was raised through Midlands Air Ambulance's Business Matters scheme which has partnered a number of local businesses to enhance corporate social responsibility within the Midlands.

Alison Blakeway, events and volunteer co-ordinator at Midlands Air Ambulance received the cheque.

She said: "This is a great way to kick off our 20th anniversary."

"Without the support from local businesses the charity wouldn't be able to continue saving lives across the region so we're hoping other business will follow in Co-Op Logistic's footsteps and support us in this very special year."

Musicians in tribute to tree-smash father

Geoff ready for his words of art

A CARTOONIST and author is due to chat about his life and work tonight (Thursday) when he hosts a talk in Stourbridge.

Artist Geoff Tristram, of Eggington Road, Wollaston, is sharing the stories behind his works at the event at Stourbridge town hall from 7.45pm.

It is part of the Stourbridge Celebrity Lectures programme – a series of talks which takes place every year.

The 56-year-old, the brains behind the cover of UB40's debut album Signing Off in 1980, has plenty of anecdotes.

He will also be taking along some of his first artworks – including a portrait of his grandfather Geoff painted when he was 11. Geoff's work includes creating an ad board to publicise one of Top Gear presenter Jeremy Clarkson's books.

He has also drawn and painted cartoon of musicians such as Elvis Presley and Bob Dylan and appeared on TV as part of the BBC's World Snooker Championships coverage. Geoff was invited to interview the top 16 players while sketching them at the same time to create a series of paintings.

Tickets for the show are priced £5 and are available from Books Unlimited in Lower High Street, Stourbridge.

Steve Cutler

BANDMATES and friends have paid tribute to a Kinvor father-of-two killed when his car was crushed by a tree uprooted in high winds.

Steve Cutler was a founding member of rock band The Picture which also includes Fred Fieldhouse, John O'Neill and Kevin Marson.

A concert The Picture had been booked to play will now be dedicated to Mr Cutler's memory.

Mr Cutler, of Hillboro Rise, Kinvor, was killed as he was driving home from rehearsals with the band at The Basement Studios in Turner Street, Dudley, last Thursday evening. The 51-year-old who worked for Frontline Tools, in Brettell Lane, Ambleside, Stourbridge, was travelling on the A458 Bridgnorth Road, Stourton, near Stourbridge, when the tree hit his Mercedes Vaneo people carrier, near the junction with Hyde Lane.

Floral tributes have been laid at the scene.

Memory

He leaves wife Alison and two sons, Alex and Jack, who are both in their 20s.

Mr Cutler was due to play with The Picture on opening night of The Baseline at The Earl of Dudley Arms pub, in Wellington Road, Dudley, on February 25. Organisers have vowed the show would still go ahead in Mr Cutler's memory.

Basement Studios manager Frank Williams said: "Everyone here is very upset, I was very sad when I heard what had happened."

"We still want to do the concert in his memory because I hope he would have wanted that."

Band member John O'Neill, writing a message on the band's Myspace webpage, said: "We will cherish the memories we shared together always."

"Our love and thoughts are with Alison and the boys, love always, Fred John and Kev."

Shows are saved in budget U-turn

SANDWELL Show and the Historic Vehicle Show, which attract more than 20,000 visitors a year, have been saved after a U-turn by council bosses.

Chiefs had drawn up plans to charge admission for the vehicle show in May so it could pay for itself.

They sent out tenders for caterers and entertainers and spent £150 advertising the new charges in magazines but have now aborted the plans.

Changes were discussed after the budget for the Sandwell Show, held in the Sandwell Valley in August, was slashed.

The authority's budget for shows and events has been cut by more than £100,000, endangering the St George's Fun Day which will now be a small museum-run event in the grounds of the Manor House in West Bromwich. Councillor Anne Shackleton, the borough's culture and leisure chief, said it was decided at cabinet not to levy a charge for the Sandwell Vehicle Show.

"There are no plans to charge for the Sandwell Show and it will go ahead as planned," she added.

Councillor Shackleton did not clarify how the authority would pay for the events, nor how smaller budgets would affect entertainment at the Sandwell Show. In a letter dated January 25, officers revealed that the historic vehicle show, which has been running for the past 32 years, was no longer in the budget.

The letter said: "The shows and events budget has been reduced by over £100,000 in the financial year 2011-12."

Former vehicle show organiser Geoff Price said: "This is a massive U-turn."

Owner's fears after shooting of pet cat

Alison Holden from Brockmoor with her cat Sparta which was shot in the leg

A CAT owner in Dudley says she is terrified to let her pet out the house after it was shot in the leg. She is now calling on other residents to keep a close eye on their pets as she says police told her a second cat in the area was shot on the same day.

Alison Holden says that when her cat, called Sparta, arrived back at her home in Brockmoor, Brierley Hill, limping badly with blood on his fur, she thought he had been in a fight with another cat.

But when he was still limping a day later she decided to go to the vets where it was found he had been shot. The cat then had to undergo a £400 operation.

Suffering

Checkout assistant Mrs Holden, aged 43, of Briers Close, said: "They said the operation was quite complicated and if it didn't work he would have to have his leg amputated. Obviously I said yes to trying the operation as he is a very much-loved cat."

"We got him back from the vets and despite looking very sorry for himself, having been shaved all down his side, with a row of stitches and the bullet hole now visible he is coming on OK."

Mrs Holden added: "I will now be terrified of letting him outside when he is better too, as the next time he could be killed. It's like this person has stolen £465 off me, and also my peace of mind for my cat, not to mention the suffering my cat has gone through."

Demands for answers over addresses mix-up

PARCELS, fridges and even a funeral firm turned up in the wrong place as part of a postal mix-up spanning 30 years. The confusion has seen unusual deliveries intended for Greenwood Avenue in Langley turn up in a road with the same name in Rowley Regis, and vice versa.

Jacqueline Adams, of Greenwood Avenue in Rowley Regis has endured the confusion for years and now wants some answers. She said she had even been sent a notice of outstanding poll tax and a fridge she had not ordered.

On one occasion, she said, traffic cones had been laid out on the street for a funeral when no-one there had passed away.

Miss Adams, aged 59, said: "If the funeral cones weren't for anyone here, someone must not have had them over in Langley. Over the summer I also had the electrician here and then two repair men from the council turned up and said they were here to do some plastering. I told them they had the wrong address. It's been going on for years."

"I've even had a hand delivered letter for outstanding poll tax, which you cannot return to sender, so you've got to ask how does this keep happening?"

"I don't like the idea of someone else getting my post, a stranger maybe opening up my phone bill or something with all my details on it. We've asked the council if they have had complaints but they said it was down to the sorting office in Birmingham."

Wrong

Grandmother-of-two Christine Ainge, a cleaner and Miss Adams' neighbour, added: "A while ago some people turned up saying they were here to do a window repair for my house."

"I was trying to persuade them for ages I'd not ordered anything to do with the windows, but they were convinced because they had the postcode down, but it was wrong."

In a letter to Mrs Adams Sandwell Council said it had contacted the local sorting office which had reported no problems with the mail.

Half-term fun with Thomas

A POPULAR tourist attraction in Staffordshire is gearing up to reopen for half-term. Drayton Manor Theme Park's Thomas Land attraction, along with the on-site 15-acre zoo, will reopen to the public from Saturday, February 19.

Thomas Land is home to 12 rides and attractions based on lovable characters, including Cranky the Crane and Harold the Helicopter, featured in the hit children's television series Thomas and Friends.

Poppy Appeal a record-breaker

A BLACK Country branch of the Royal British Legion is celebrating after raising a record-breaking total during the Poppy Appeal.

More than £31,000 has been generated by the Kingswinford branch.

It beats last year's sum of £28,000 despite the economic downturn.

Appeal organisers say support has increased since the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq. The amount raised includes a £500 donation from Covanta Energy of Pensnett Trading Estate with a further £200 donated by their staff.

Kingswinford Poppy Appeal organiser, Alan Barratt said: "This is a tremendous achievement. My thanks go to supermarkets, businesses, traders, and the Merry Hill Centre."

"We must not forget also our members and helpers who gave many hours of their time selling poppies, Kingswinford Air Cadets, the poppy walkers and anyone else who helped."

Museums offer some crafty fun

Museum assistant Amy Clarke promotes the Sticky Saturday event across Dudley

YOUNGSTERS have been getting to grips with some new crafts at sessions being held in Dudley.

Sticky Saturday, a family craft club, is held regularly at different museums around the borough every month.

There are three sessions a month, with each site - Broadfield House Glass Museum, Kingswinford, Red House Glass Cone, Wordsley, and Dudley Museum and Art Gallery - running an activity one Saturday each month.

Dudley Council spokeswoman Jessica Haines said no booking was needed at the activities. "Families can just drop in and take part in a craft, which has a different theme every month," she said.

"The sessions are free and families don't even have to tidy up after themselves."

Last Saturday's event was at Broadfield House Glass Museum in Kingswinford. Sessions run between 1.30pm and 3.30pm.

This Saturday (February 12) the fun will be at Dudley Museum and on February 19, the Red House Glass Cone.

Anger after village is left without new bins

Drama group is on the lookout

A CHARITY drama group set up to increase the confidence of people with mental illness is looking for new members.

The Dudley Rethink Act Up Theatre Company, set up by mental health charity Rethink, is hoping to recruit people with mental illness or who care for someone with a mental illness.

The group has been running for 17 years but currently has just seven members. They write all their own scripts based on personal experiences.

Changes

Mental health recovery worker Sarah Winchurch said: "We really want some more members. The theatre group is part of a package of recovery for our clients, and it helps them with their confidence and socialisation."

Miss Winchurch said the current performance was entitled "Reasonable Adjustments", and focused on the changes firms have to make to help someone who is disabled or who had a mental illness. Rethink is based in King Street, Dudley - call Miss Winchurch on 01384 869898.

Volunteer Robert Jones with Rethink users and drama group members Samuel Sunderland, David Dickinson, and mental health worker Sarah Winchurch

A VILLAGE High Street has been without litter bins for two months following a £900,000 revamp sparking fury among residents and traders.

Kinver High Street businesses are putting out their own bins to stop rubbish being thrown down, making the village look untidy.

Traders say they are furious bins were not installed despite renovation of the High Street being finished in mid-November. South Staffordshire District Council said bins and cycle parks would arrive in the next fortnight.

The council say they had been made to order which had taken the extra time. They will be colour-coded with some for regular rubbish and other for recyclable litter.

Sarah Jolly, of The Butchery, High Street, said: "This is the latest in a catalogue of problems along the High Street. I have not heard one single person say a good thing about the renovation yet."

"The issue with the bins is just terrible. What is the point of these improvements to make the village look good if there is nowhere for people to put their litter?"

Black

"We have taken to putting our own bin outside so people have a place where they can put their rubbish. It is just unfathomable why this has not already been done."

Resident Bob Clarke said: "The works took more than 10 months to finish. Why couldn't these bins have been made during this time so they would have been ready?"

"Even if that had not been possible, we are two months removed from these works being finished."

Council spokesman Jamie Angus said: "The bins and cycle parks will be installed in the next two or three weeks."

"They had to be put on order which is why there has been a slight delay. But they have been delivered and a date is being arranged with Staffordshire County Council engineers to install them."

Several traders had a big drop in profits, during the revamp work and some closed, including accessory store Bags 'n' Things, in January last year.

Villagers said that black asphalt at one end spoiled the look of the village.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Following the coldest December since records began and before possibly the coldest Winter on record, now is the time to take advantage of grants to insulate your home and keep your property warmer whilst still reducing your fuel bills!

Scheme 1

This scheme is aimed at ordinary working people who are outside the benefit system and is not a means tested grant. The price you pay is based on property type and represents a real saving of at least 60% on the cost of cavity wall insulation. Prices quoted below are what you actually pay. We do all the necessary paperwork and claim the excess amount from the utility companies direct leaving you with a warm house at a fraction the normal cost

Property type	Cavity wall insulation	Loft insulation
Flat/Mid terraced house	£119	£199
Semi house/bungalow	£139	£199
Detached house/bungalow	£189	£199

Scheme 2 Benefit Holders

If you or your partner are in receipt of a qualifying benefit* then you will receive loft or cavity wall insulation totally free of charge

Grants are also available for central heating, boiler replacement and draughtproofing

Applicable benefits include - Income support, Pension Credit, Council Tax Benefit, Working or Child Tax Credit (with income less than ££16,400), Attendance Allowance & Disability Living Allowance.

Scheme 3 - Over 70's

If you or anyone permanently living in your house is over 70 years of age then you will receive cavity wall insulation totally free of charge. If your loft insulation is below 60mm in depth then this could also be topped up free as well. This is not means tested in any way shape or form!!!

Stagehand hunt to aid fundraiser

United event for charity

TWO Black Country football clubs and a manufacturing firm joined forces to raise £1,400 for a teenage cancer charity.

More than 120 people enjoyed a night of comedy and tales of football's bygone era to bring in cash for the Teenage Cancer Trust.

The night was organised by GM Steels, in Dudley Road West, Tividale, Oldbury.

The firm which has run successful charity nights over the years enlisted the help of Tividale FC and Netherton Colts under-15s for the latest event. Ex-Liverpool player Joey Jones was guest speaker at the club's event in November, alongside comic Leslie Gibson. And the firm's boss John Gwinnell, aged 53, of Dudley, said the comedy night had been a huge success.

"We hadn't done an event for a while so thought it would be a good to revive one for such a worthy cause," he said.

The money raised was presented to the charity last Monday by Gemma Simmer, aged 21, from Dudley, who had been in remission for five years after suffering Hodgkin's Disease. Gemma is a relative of one of the footballers.

AN assistant stage manager is needed to help stage a Midland fundraising concert.

The MUSICA 11 event, in aid of Clent's Sunfield School, has been lined up for July 30 by Belbroughton couple Roger and Gaye Hadley.

A host of artists including Italian pianist Antonio-Pompa-Baldi and his wife Emanuela Friscioni will perform with Kingswinford's Gentlemen Songsters Male Voice Choir.

Lighting and sound crew have already been signed up. But an assistant stage manager is still needed for the event at Church Farm in Bradford Lane, Belbroughton.

Talent

Mrs Hadley said: "We do hope someone who is either an experienced stage manager, or who is learning the role, would give a little of their time to help MUSICA 11 be a success."

"We are sure there is someone with talent out there who could help us."

To help call Mrs Hadley on 07527 214946 or visit www.musica11.com

Ahead of the event, a fundraising dinner is being held at The Talbot in Belbroughton on Monday, March 14. Tickets cost £25 each and are available by calling Mrs Hadley.

Training studio plan approved

A RETROSPECTIVE planning application for offices to become a personal training studio have been approved.

Dudley Council's development control committee agreed the site in Lawnswood Road, Wordsley, had not been changed greatly from its original use and had sufficient parking.

Let us pay as church helps out charities

HAGLEY churchgoers gave more than £10,000 to charities in the last year.

A total of £4,000 was donated through St Saviour's Church's outreach programme, including £1,200 to a programme to pay for eight children around the world to have surgery for cleft palates.

Donations also included £1,300 for the Farmers' Overseas Action Group and money to support families coping with Aids, domestic violence and poverty in Uganda; the Midlands Air Ambulance, and the Three Roses Home for people with Down's Syndrome in Clent. Just over £1,000 was raised to help the people of Haiti, and £462 was collected for victims of the Pakistan floods.

Other charities helped included Lord Cobham's Worcestershire Youth Cricket Trust, the British Legion, the Children's Society, Acorn's Children's Trust, the Bishop Simeon Trust and a project to finance a child's education in Malawi.

House now in different style

A FORMER house will become a hairdressers.

Dudley councillors agreed a change of use application for the house, in Lawnswood Road, Wordsley. The property, opposite The Old Cat pub, is near to ample parking spaces.

It's more theatre for Ben

SCHOOLBOY Ben Evans is reaching for the stars after landing the leading role in Lionel Bart's musical Oliver! at Wolverhampton's Grand Theatre.

The nine-year-old pupil at The Royal Wolverhampton School beat off the challenge of 40 other young hopefuls who were on the shortlist for the part.

The production by West Bromwich Operatic Society is being staged from May 10-14.

Ben, from Stourbridge Road, Wombourne, has already been in six shows including The Forbidden Planet when it was at the Grand.

Brett Wood, aged 18

Teenage lead thief preyed on the old and vulnerable in night spree

A TEENAGE thief who stripped more than £1,500 worth of lead from elderly people's homes during an overnight stealing spree has been given a suspended prison sentence.

The 18-year-old "preyed on vulnerable victims" and left them facing bills of hundreds of pounds to replace the lead and fix the damage, a court heard. Nine homes were targeted by Brett Wood. He got away with lead from seven of them.

Wood, of Sedgeford Close, Brierley Hill, had been helped by a 17-year-old accomplice and a driver, Dudley Magistrates Court heard.

Magistrates chairman Mrs Barbara Sykes, told him: "This was a calculated series of thefts and there was a considerable number of victims."

Properties in Heath Farm Road, Belbroughton Road and Fredericks Close, Norton, Stourbridge, were targeted.

Police were called by residents who had heard noises on their roofs or had seen Wood ripping lead flashing from their homes at about 3am on January 4.

One piece of lead in the haul was 8ft long, said Miss Maxine Macintosh, prosecuting.

Stealing

Wood was also seen at about 8.30am loading the metal into a Vauxhall Nova in South Road, Stourbridge.

Miss Macintosh added: "He has preyed on elderly and vulnerable victims."

But Miss Diljit Bachada, defending, said Wood did not know he was stealing from elderly people. She added: "This was an opportunistic crime." The 17-year-old, who cannot be named for legal reasons, will be sentenced on February 16 having pleaded guilty to the same charges.

Wood pleaded guilty to seven counts of theft and two of attempted theft. He also admitted cannabis possession.

He was handed a 12-week sentence suspended for 12 months, a 12-month community order, and told to complete 120 hours unpaid work in the community.

He must pay £641 compensation – a third of £1,923, the total value of damage caused and lead stolen.

Wood will also undergo 23 sessions on a Thinking Skills programme, including modules on "problem solving", "self-control" and "positive relationships".

Talk on brave spy who was UK Schindler

PEOPLE can learn more about Stourbridge spy Frank Foley, who was known as the British Schindler, at a talk tonight (Thursday).

Major Foley, a passport officer in Berlin, helped to save the lives of thousands of Jews during the Second World War.

He bent the rules and forged papers to allow them to escape, sheltered people in his own home and even visited concentration camps to hand out visas. Following his retirement he moved to Stourbridge where he lived until his death in 1958, aged 74.

In 2004 a remembrance plaque was dedicated to him at Mary Stevens Park, near his Eveson Road house.

Wordsley History Society will host the talk by The Rev Gary Ward at the Community Centre, Wordsley Green at 7.30pm.

Group's £500 for hospice

A TIPTON volunteer group raised more than £500 for a Black Country hospice. Tibbington Lights Theme raised £525 over a series of collections during December and gave all the proceeds to the Compton Hospice near Wolverhampton. Members of the group, which has been running for the past five years, collected on the street, at the Asda supermarket in Great Bridge and Wednesbury's Morrisons store.

Half-term fun at centre

FOOTBALL, basketball, craft workshops and a roller disco have been lined up as part of a packed programme of half-term activities for youngsters in Stourbridge. The sessions, at Crystal Leisure Centre kick off on February 21 with a roller disco at 1.30pm. Gymnastics will be held on February 23 and arts and craft sessions on February 24. A 50 per cent discount will be given to under-16s who join sports classes.

Hidden cabling hitch for recycling depot

Urgent appeal by charity shop

A CHARITY shop in Dudley has launched an urgent appeal for new donations after the store's manager said it was the quietest spell she had seen in the 18 years she had been there.

The Cancer Research shop in Castle Street is on the look-out for an array of good quality items but is most in need of women's clothing, shoes and handbags.

Manager Susan Guest said: "I have been here 18 years and have never seen it so bad. I don't know whether it is the recession and that people are hanging on to things."

She added: "We would urge people to have a look in their wardrobes and if there is anything at all they have which is of a good quality and that they don't want we would be happy to receive it so we can sell it for a good cause."

Donations can be made at the shop between 9am and 5pm.

WORK has started on a £1 million recycling depot being built on the site of a former BT building.

Dudley Council is building it on vacant land between Blowers Green Road and the Dudley Southern Bypass.

It will deal with cans, plastics, bottles, paper and cardboard. Work started after planning permission was secured last year. However, the project had to be amended, with a second planning application submitted last week.

Council spokesman Chris Howes said: "We already have planning permission for a mobile office, which now needs to be amended to accommodate an unforeseen underground cable."

The depot will relieve congestion at the current Lister Road base as well as allowing the council to collect extra material in future.

Work, due to end in spring, comes part-way through a trial of plastic and cardboard recycling in parts of the borough which may be rolled out if it is a success.

About 11,000 homes are taking part in a scheme launched last September and running until April.

Football club in search to sign up physiotherapist

DUDLEY Town FC is looking for a team physio. People can either have previous training in physiotherapy or receive on-the-job training. Basic first aid qualifications are a must.

The non-league side plays its games at The Dell Stadium, in Bryce Road, Brierley Hill. Call club chairman Stephen Austin on 07412 046050 or first team manager Neil Perks on 07912 148279 for details

Tesco flagship to trial services

An artist's impression of how the new £27 million flagship Tesco store at Burnt Tree Island, Dudley, would look once completed

A HAIR salon, nail bar and even a gymnasium could be created inside a flagship new £27 million Tesco supermarket to be built in the Black Country, it has been revealed.

The supermarket giant has released an artist's impression of how the new store near Burnt Tree Island, Dudley, will look. The store is of a modern design with wood panelling across the building and large inset windows.

A row of glass panels will run along one side of the building to let in more natural light so only a minimum of electrical light has to be used. There are also glass panels on the roof of the building and there are plans to create a car park beneath the building linked to the store by an escalator as well as ground-level parking spaces.

Autumn

But the new store will not include the landmark clock tower of the previous Tesco store on the site. It will be a "concept store" including elements never tried by the chain before.

It could include a hair salon or gym which, if successful, would then be rolled out to other stores across the country. A final decision on what would be included in the Dudley store will not be made for another month at least. Construction is scheduled to begin in late April or early May with completion due in the autumn.

The supermarket giant said its aim was to have the new store up-and-running by Christmas. The site, on the Town Gate Retail Park, is currently being cleared following demolition of the previous 18-year-old Tesco store.

Work to clear the site is expected to take around 10 weeks.

Manager of the old Dudley store Peter Vinnicombe said: "Its size and design will allow us to experiment with new concepts which we have not been able to do before."

People to have say on take-aways

PEOPLE in Sandwell can voice their opinions on hot-food take-aways as part of a special survey into the growing problems of obesity and poor diets.

Sandwell Council has started an online survey asking people for their views on fast food and hot food takeaways in the borough.

They will be asked to comment on a number of issues including their perceptions about hot food takeaways in the borough and how far they might walk to purchase fast food.

Sandwell Council cabinet member for jobs and economy Councillor Ian Jones, said: "With our busy lives these days, it is all too easy to forget about the healthier options and just grab a take-away. No one is saying don't eat take-away food. We are just trying to get the balance right."

As an incentive to take part all completed entries will be entered into a prize draw with the winner receiving a month's free membership to Sandwell Leisure Trust, a £10 Tesco Voucher and a £30 Argos Voucher.

The survey can be found at www.sandwell.gov.uk/takeaways.

Craft sessions are on the cards

A NEW Dudley arts and crafts group has been launched.

Sessions take place at the Dudley Cancer Support group's White House, Ednam Road, on Fridays between 10am and noon. There will be card making and embroidery on offer.

New to the West End

Danielle Hope is about to set off on the yellow brick road

LONDON'S West End stage is to unveil a host of new shows, from spectacular musicals to hard-hitting dramas and classic comedy, this spring.

Theatreland is buzzing with anticipation as blockbusters prepare to open and Hollywood stars head for the stages of the capital.

Most anticipated of all is The Wizard of Oz at the London Palladium, starring Danielle Hope – winner of Andrew Lloyd Webber's TV star search Over The Rainbow – as Dorothy. It also marks the return from New Zealand of the original Phantom of the Opera, Michael Crawford, as the wizard.

The Wizard of Oz will feature songs from the classic movie plus new songs written by Lloyd Webber with Tim Rice. The show is previewing now and officially opens on March 1. Those attending on a Tuesday or when Danielle Hope is on holiday will see Over The Rainbow's 'Welsh Dorothy' Sophie Evans in the role.

Acclaimed Cornish theatre company Knee High revive French musical The Umbrellas of Cherbourg, with music by Jacques Demy and Michel Legrand, at the Gielgud Theatre. The romantic tale of thwarted love, about a girl working in an umbrella shop who falls for a mechanic just as he joins the Army, previews from March 5 and opens officially on March 22.

The show features cabaret star Meow Meow, the song I Will Wait For You and is being directed by Emma Rice, who also brought Knee High's Brief Encounter to the West End.

Based on Alan Bennett's screenplay for A Private Function, musical Betty Blue Eyes will star Coronation Street's Sarah Lancashire and the League of Gentlemen's Reece Shearsmith as a small town chiropodist and his wife who steal a pig in ration-hit post-war Britain. It previews at the Novello from March 19 and opens on March 28.

Rock

The birth of rock 'n' roll at Sun Records in Memphis is conjured in Million Dollar Quartet with Michael Malarkey as Elvis Presley, Ben Goddard as Jerry Lee Lewis, Derek Hagen as Johnny Cash and Robert Britton Lyons as Carl Perkins. It is previewing now at the Noel Coward Theatre before opening on February 28.

Lovers of footwear from the Croc to Jimmy Choo are catered for at Shoes The Musical at the Peacock Theatre but catch it if you can, the show closes on April 3. Tracie Bennett is getting rave reviews as Judy Garland in End of the Rainbow at the Trafalgar Studios. It's been extended to April 16.

The big names are coming to star in plays this spring. Movie stars Sienna Miller and James Purefoy are joined by Sheridan Smith, from her stint in Legally Blonde, in Terence Rattigan's stiff-upper-lip Second World War drama Flare Path, directed by Trevor Nunn. Centred on the tangled love life of a bomber pilot and his actress wife, it was made into the vintage British movie Way To The Stars. It's at the Theatre Royal, Haymarket, previewing from March 3, opening on March 10.

Matthew Fox from TV's Lost and Olivia Williams, recently seen in Roman Polanski's The Ghost, star in the drama In A Forest, Dark and Deep, written and directed by Neil LaBute, which previews at The Vaudeville Theatre from March 3 and opens on March 14. It is set in a cabin in the woods, where a man learns his sister's secret.

Cold Feet couple Hermione Norris and Robert Bathurst are reunited in Noel Coward's comedy Blithe Spirit at the Apollo Theatre, previewing from March 2 and opening on March 9. Ruthie Henshall plays the ghostly former wife Elvira and fans of Alison Steadman will be eagerly anticipating her role as flamboyant clairvoyant Madame Arcati.

Also reunited are Doctor Who pair David Tennant and Catherine Tate as sparring lovers Benedict and Beatrice in Shakespeare's Much Ado About Nothing, giving the Bard an all-too-rare West End airing at the Wyndham's, previewing from May 16 and opening on June 1 for a summer-long run.

At the National on the Southbank, Benedict Cumberbatch – TV's modern day Sherlock – and Jonny Lee Miller will be swapping roles of creature and creator in Nick Dear's adaptation of Mary Shelley's Frankenstein. It's at the Olivier at the NT until April 17.

Still to come... Shrek The Musical at the Theatre Royal in Drury Lane (previews from May 6), Richard Fleeshman in Ghost The Musical at the Piccadilly (previews from June 22), and Jude Law in Eugene O'Neill's Anna Christie at the Donmar Warehouse from August 4.

Stars to grace stage at town concert hall

New shop proves popular

SHOPPERS in Halesowen have a new chance for bargain hunting after a new Salvation Army charity shop opened its doors.

The branch is in Hagley Street and bosses say it has already proved a hit with members of the public. Manager Christopher Scott said: "We've been very busy getting the shop ready for a while now and the response from local residents has been fantastic."

Team

"People have been regularly popping by, keen to see what's going on and how they can help. We've also had some very generous donations from locals including some lovely gift sets that were unwanted Christmas presents so we're absolutely thrilled."

"We hope that now we're open the local community will enjoy shopping here."

The shop is appealing for more people to join its team of volunteers. Anyone interested can pop in or email volunteer@saratrad-ingco.org

STARS of stand-up and a mixture of musicians are among acts booked to dazzle audiences in a new season of entertainment unveiled for Dudley. Funnymen Jimmy Carr and Jason Manford will be among those at Dudley Concert Hall.

And there is also live music from renowned choirs, songs from the shows and tribute concerts included in the top line-up at venues across the borough.

Dudley's own king of comedy Lenny Henry kicked off the season last week with his latest stage show Cradle to the Grave.

And there will be more laughs when Irish comic and TV panel show regular Ed Byrne brings his latest show Crowd Pleaser to the town's concert hall on March 11.

He features on television shows Mock the Week and Have I Got News For You. Meanwhile, tickling sticks will be at the ready to get audiences rolling in the aisles when Ken Dodd makes his return to the Black Country for his Happiness Show on March 19.

Former One Show host Jason Manford will be visiting Dudley for a two-night run on April 8-9. He was caught up in controversy last year following allegations about his private life.

The comedy will continue when Jimmy Carr, with his Laughter Therapy tour, hits the concert hall on June 22.

As well as acts from the national comic circuit, home-grown Black Country comics will also be taking a wry look at life in the region.

The Black Country Comedy Show tour presents May Contain Nuts on March 4. It features the talents of the Fizzog Theatre Company and Barbara Nice for the sketch and music show at Stourbridge Town Hall, within the Crown Centre.

Soul

Nostalgia enthusiasts can enjoy a revival of the '20s and '30s with The Charleston Chasers performing vintage pop music during a matinee show on February 15.

And music fans are catered for with a visit by US soul singer Ben E King. He will be joined by Gary US Bonds at Dudley Concert Hall - performing in The Great American Soulbook - on February 26. The Gentlemen Songsters, will raise the roof of the concert hall on March 26.

How the railways became the arteries of the nation

GREAT BRITISH RAILWAY JOURNEYS - SERIES 1

It's said the simplest ideas are the best and in the case of Great British Railway Journeys 1 it's true.

Take a 19th century railway "bible" written by George Bradshaw, the father of rail timetables, and 150 years on see how much of what he noted and the journeys he catalogued remain.

Then have it presented by former MP and Minister for Transport Michael Portillo, who, although a rail enthusiast, would not be everyone's first choice as a frontman.

Clinging to his "Bradshaw's" like Linus to his security blanket, Portillo follows the journeys north from Scotland to as far south as Penzance and east to west across the UK through Walsall, Shropshire and into Wales, along the routes set out in the guide and stopping at the places lauded by Bradshaw.

Nostalgic

What this series offers is something reminiscent of the heyday of the BBC programming crossed with the nostalgic magic of the old British Rail information films.

Portillo never looks comfortable doing his pieces to camera or vox pops in the many locations he stops off but, bizarrely, that all adds to the charm of his journey through time and social history as he walks along carefully like a parson reading his daily prayer book.

GBRJ1 is an extremely well put together series with the archive footage and pictures used to good effect and not just as padding.

The episodes are further bolstered by stunning aerial shots of the countryside and landmarks Portillo visits and travels through, giving the viewer a chance to see familiar and not so familiar buildings, structures and landscapes in a way they would probably never get to view.

This is not just a series for railway enthusiasts it will appeal to anyone interested in how our lands and lifestyles were shaped and changed by the railways.

It shows how industries from coal to kippers were spread nationwide and chronicles the sometimes high price in human life paid to build some of our most impressive structures.

Childhood

It will appeal also to those who enjoy wonderful scenery or those who are just nostalgic for an age they can just about remember from their childhood.

Portillo uses the train journeys like a time machine going back to the age of Bradshaw, retelling the author's enthusiasm for the railway, the technology of the time and the buildings and structures the Victorians created.

During the journeys which take him from Scotland to London and across the Midlands and down as far as you can go in Penzance, Portillo not only gets to indulge his passion for railways, and steam trains in particular, but he also gets to share some of the hidden legacies the great age of steam trains opened up for the first time to the ordinary man.

It also shows the grandeur of the buildings and enormity of some of the structures which the Victorians built or had a vision for.

Among other nuggets of information you find out are the treacherous Morecambe Bay sands which are watched over by the Queen's guide Cedric Robinson, a position which goes back to the early 1500s, and uncover evidence of cannibalism in Cornwall and discover how one of the biggest domes in the world, which is in the Midlands, was linked to the Tay Bridge disaster.

Portillo's slightly awkward presence adds to the quirkiness of this series and there is something extremely watchable in him attempting a Scouse accent while journeying through Liverpool's Lime Street or being ignored by a befuddled guard as he tries desperately to wave goodbye to her, or spilling his beer as he tries to read a plaque at the same time as drinking in the lobby of a hotel.

Whether you like trains, fantastic scenery, nostalgia, social history or just want to know more about the country you live in Great British Railway Journeys is a wonderfully watchable series to do all this and more.

The 4 disc set Great British Railway Journeys of Britain Series 1 is out now on Freemantle DVD.

Queens of catwalk are back for spring show

A FASHION show is set to coin the cash for a Stourbridge charity, with organisers hoping to raise more than £2,000.

Mary Stevens Hospice is organising the show at the Granary Restaurant, Stone, near Kidderminster, on March 31.

A similar event last September sold out in just 10 days, raising nearly £2,000, and many people were left disappointed that they could not attend.

Staff at the hospice in Hagley Road have increased numbers of seats to 160 for the second show next month and tickets are now on sale.

The event will start with a three-course lunch and designer fashions will be showcased by professional models.

Clothes have been provided for the event by Davenport No 2, of Harborne, Birmingham, and Sackcloth Designs, of Stourbridge.

The show will focus on spring fashions and feature casual daytime, knitwear, cocktail dresses and wedding outfits.

Tickets are priced £25 and can be purchased by calling 01384 377778.

Dressed looking the part are Janet Jones, head of fundraising at Stourbridge's Mary Stevens Hospice, Julie Marsden, owner of Davenport No 2, and Denise Olive Shame of drinker who threw table at woman

A PUBGOER in Dudley threw a metal table at a woman who told him off for urinating in the garden, a court heard.

Thomas Miles, aged 23, of Thornfield Croft, Sedgley, was ordered to do 180 hours' community service by Wolverhampton Crown Court.

Miles had been drinking at the Spills Meadow pub, in Kent Street, Dudley, and became involved in "a bit of pushing and shoving" with the woman after she caught him using the pub garden as a toilet, said Mr Howard Searle, prosecuting.

He hurled a metal table at her, and went to throw a wooden table at her as well before being stopped by onlookers.

Clouded

Judge Martin Walsh told him: "This was drunken boorish behaviour. It was disgraceful conduct in a public place."

Miles pleaded guilty to using threatening words and behaviour and was given a three-month curfew order along with the unpaid community work, meaning he must stay in his house between 7pm and 5am.

Mr Searle said that after his arrest Miles told police officers he had downed six pints and that had clouded his judgment. He stressed he was full of remorse for his actions.

Miss Ruth Pathan, defending, said Miles accepted he should not have urinated in the pub garden – something he did because he was "extremely drunk."

Covering all the ages of romance

ME TO YOU WITH LOVE – VIRGIN

IF you fancy buying a romantic CD for the one you love this Valentine's Day then you could do worse than the latest in the series Me To You With Love.

The two CD set which has 43 tracks pretty much covers all the bases no matter what age you are or which era you consider the most romantic.

If you grew up through the 50s you were just the right age to enjoy classics such as the velvet voiced Nat King Cole with L-O-V-E and the unmistakable sound of Louis Armstrong with We Have All The Time In The World to remind you of your youth although many of Satchmo's anthems have enjoyed new life thanks to advertising. Also from the 60s are The Shirelles and Will You Still Love Me Tomorrow or The Beach Boys' God Only Knows.

Every decade is

Wonderful World – Katie Melua

covered with Huey Lewis and The Power of Love, Elton John's haunting anthem Sorry Seems To Be The Hardest Word, Hot Chocolate's obvious flattery of You Sexy Thing and the incredible voice of Minnie Riperton and Loving you.

If wearing a rah rah skirt was your way of being romantic then you will enjoy Can't Help Falling In Love by UB40 or if you sported your best pork pie hat to impress the ladies then Madness and It Must Be Love is the one for you.

The double CD brings you through the 90s and into the new Millennium with the Spice Girls and Stop, Roxette It Must Have Been Love and of course Robbie Williams and Angels.

For those who are still in the first flush of romance there are tracks from Eliza Doolittle, Katy Perry, Lily Allen with Smile, Norah Jones and Corinne Bailey Rae.

There are some nice additions on this album as well, which include Katie Melua duetting with the late great Eva Cassidy on What A Wonderful World, The Kooks with She Moves In Her Own Way, Tom Baxter and Better, and Joe Cocker's You Are So Beautiful.

Other tracks you can smooch to come from Nina Simone, Tina Turner, Bryan Ferry, Frankie Valli, Spandau Ballet, Don McLean and Shirley Bassey.

MTYWL also includes the classic spinemelter Let's Stay Together from Al Green, so open the wine and chocolates, dim the lights, close the curtains, snuggle up and enjoy these and many more romantic sounds.

From Me To You double CD is out now on Virgin.

Adding an extra sparkle

IF you are looking for a classy wine to add extra sparkle to Valentine's Day, check out Canard-Duchene Champagnes, available from Majestic and from some other wine merchants.

The house of Canard-Duchene was founded in 1868 in the village of Ludes near Reims, at the heart of France's Champagne region.

The house were suppliers to the Russian imperial family, hence the double-headed eagle crest on the label.

The sabre on the label is a reminder of those romantic times when hussars were adept at opening a Champagne bottle with a slash of their sabre.

Chardonnay

The Cuvee Leonie is made in the style of the founders, matured for a long period in the house's six kilometres of cellars. It has delicate fruit but also depth and power. It is made from Pinot Noir, Pinot Meunier and Chardonnay grapes.

Champagne Canard-Duchene, the excellent main house sparkler, is a little cheaper but has plenty of quality, being a clean accessible brut.

Majestic have the Canard Duchene Grande Cuvee Charles VII NV Champagne, created to mark the house's centenary, at £25.

Who's in town?

B RITAIN'S favourite girl group The Saturdays provide a Valentine's Day treat for pop fans at Wolverhampton Civic Hall on Monday.

Since they debuted in 2007 the girls have sold nearly 2 million records and racked up a very impressive seven top ten singles. They have fronted a major campaign as the face of Impulse and starred in The Saturdays: 24/7, a prime-time behind-the-scenes documentary for ITV2.

The Saturdays' new album Headlines!, released through Fascination Records, went straight into the UK albums chart at number 3 upon release, following the smash hit single Missing You.

Headlines! is an eight-track album that includes a handful of sparkling new songs plus Ego and their number two smash from last year, Forever Is Over.

The new album is the result of studio sessions that took place during Ego's four-month chart reign last year.

Una Healy, Frankie Sandford, Rochelle Wiseman, Mollie King and Vanessa White are experts on the live circuit having performed to thousands on their sold out 2009 tour and have since dazzled fans at festivals across the country.

Rochelle said: "We couldn't be more excited for the Headlines tour. Performing live is absolutely our favourite part of being in The Saturdays, and we can't wait to see all our fans up and down the country!"

The Saturdays will be supported at the concert by boy band Twenty Twenty. Tickets are priced £24.50.

The reinvented McFly promote their Birmingham gig which will be at the LG Arena in March

McFly reveal their maturity

MCFLY have reinvented themselves as a stadium-filling mega-draw after the success of their fourth album Radio:Active in 2008 and fifth studio album Above The Noise late last year.

The latter provided them with the top five hit Shine A Light featuring Talo Cruz.

The band have matured from the power pop kids of the 5 Colours In Her Hair era, having their own record label and finding success in America and Australia.

"We learnt to completely rethink what McFly could be," said singer Tom Fletcher.

They will be filling the arenas again next month including a gig at the LG Arena, Birmingham, on March 30.

Tickets cost £14 or £28.50. Contact 0844 3388000 or visit www.theticketfactory.com

Golden year charity sets target to beat heart disease

The charity aims to promote awareness of heart disease

A well known charity is celebrating its 50th birthday with half a century of love songs aimed straight at the heart.

Best of my love: Songs From The Heart, is a five-disc compilation album to take listeners on a trip down a musical memory lane.

It's a perfect Valentine's gift and will help raise vital funds for the British Heart Foundation (BHF).

The charity's vision is a world where people don't die prematurely from heart disease.

The BHF aims to achieve this through pioneering research, vital prevention activity and ensuring quality care and support for everyone living with heart disease.

The charity was founded in 1961 by a group of medical professionals wanting to fund extra research into the causes, diagnosis, treatment and prevention of heart and circulatory disease.

In making such an ambitious vision a reality it helps to set some milestones along the way and this is why the BHF have established a number of objectives to guide its day-to-day work.

Heathcare professionals

However, this can't be achieved alone. The charity is working alongside the Government, health charities, healthcare professionals and thousands of dedicated supporters to beat heart disease. Everybody has a part to play.

Its mission is to play a leading role in the fight against disease of the heart and circulation, so that it is no longer a major cause of disability and premature death.

In the strategy report, Beating Heart Disease Together, published in 2007, the BHF stated that, within a generation, it aims to:

- Reduce cardiovascular disease in the UK to one of the lowest levels in Europe.

Within a decade, the BHF aims to:

- Halve the number of people under 75 who die from cardiovascular disease
- Make sure at least two thirds of people under 75 survive a heart attack
- Reduce heart-related deaths in all UK local authority areas to the current level in south east England or below
- Reverse the rise in childhood obesity.

To help the charity get there, it's set a number of objectives across the following areas:

- Research
- Information
- Campaigning
- Care
- Equality

To make all this work possible, the BHF relies on the public's generous donation of time and money.

Visit www.bhf.org.uk or call 020 7554 0000 for more information.

Niki stars in Blood Brothers

Matt to put gloss on Footloose

BUSTED star Matt Willis is gearing up for his role in the musical Footloose at Birmingham Hippodrome.

The I'm a Celebrity Get Me Out of Here winner in 2006 is playing the role of Chuck in the dance musical which can be seen at Birmingham Hippodrome from March 14 to 19.

Directed and choreographed by Olivier award-winner Karen Bruce, the fast-paced show is packed with lots of dance as well as some classic 80s anthems, including the hit title track Footloose! It tells the story of a city boy, Ren, who moves to a rural backwater in America where dancing is banned.

Tickets are priced £13 to £33 and available at www.birminghamhippodrome.com or on 0844 338 5000.

RADIO and TV regular Mark Steel, who has been a stand-up comedian for nearly 30 years, brings his comic musings to Wolverhampton's Slade Rooms on Thursday, February 17. The sharp-witted Steel is still at the top of his game, as anyone who tunes into Radio 4's The News Quiz will know. Tickets cost £15.

WILLY Russell's moving musical Blood Brothers, about twins separated at birth who are reunited with tragic results, returns to Wolverhampton next week with former X Factor finalist Niki Evans in the key role of Mrs Johnstone.

Russell's hard-hitting, dramatic, but often very funny, musical has been a West End fixture for many years.

The touring production featured Lynn Paul when it last came to the Grand Theatre and now Tamworth-based Niki Evans takes on the role of the broken-hearted Liverpudlian mother, singing Tell Me It's Not True and Marilyn Monroe. Blood Brothers is at the Grand from Monday to the following Saturday.

Meanwhile, RSC and Star Wars actor Oliver Ford Davies plays the title role in wartime weepy Goodnight Mister Tom, a new stage adaptation of Michelle Magorian's novel until Saturday.

Classic romantic

One of the country's most innovative and popular dance companies, Matthew Bourne's New Adventures, return to Birmingham Hippodrome on Tuesday with a radical new interpretation of Cinderella. He has won praise and acclaim for his reworking of Swan Lake and the New Adventures' versions of Edward Scissorhands, The Nutcracker and Dorian Gray.

His revamp of Cinderella tells the story against the background of Blitz-era London with Prokofiev's classic romantic score the soundtrack to Cinderella's journey through the blackout to find romance with a dashing young RAF pilot. It is staged at the Hippodrome to Saturday, February 19.

Craig Revel Horwood's flamboyant revival of 1980s musical Chess, which Tim Rice wrote with the male half of Abba, is at the Hippodrome to this Saturday. Shona White is the woman caught between Russian and American chess grandmasters. The stand out song is I Know Him So Well.

There is a series of one-nighters at Birmingham's New Alexandra Theatre. On Friday Roger Dean and the Lazy Boys present their tribute to a country music legend in The Johnny Cash Story. The Real Deal Comedy Jam are hosted by Kat B on Saturday and feature London comic Kane Brown, Canadian Jag Ghanas, American Nema Williams, who is one of P Diddy's Bad Boys of Comedy, and New Yorker Frantz Casseus.

Dance sensations Flawless, from Britain's Got Talent, perform their variety of dazzling dance styles on Sunday night.

Steve Delaney brings his BBC Radio 4 comedy character, the language mangling former variety star

Former X Factor finalist Niki Evans, who plays the key role of Mrs Johnstone in Blood Brothers at Wolverhampton's Grand Theatre

Count Arthur Strong there on Monday for his Command Performance.

Birmingham Rep's first off-site production is Kenny Baraka's musical post-apocalyptic tale The Rememberers. The one hour tale of a teenager who holds the key to mankind's future will be at a warehouse at the AE Harris Building in Birmingham's Jewellery Quarter to February 19. Contact the box office on 0121 236 4455.

Anton De Beke and Erin Boag from Strictly Come Dancing are Puttin' On The Ritz in matinee and evening performances at the Symphony Hall this Saturday. Elkie Brooks is in concert at Birmingham Town Hall on Saturday. Then the venue hosts schoolchildren from across the city at 3.15pm and 6pm on Sunday for the children's musical fantasy Romany Wood in aid of Birmingham St Mary's Hospice. Gareth Gates duets with fellow West End star Scarlett Strallen in the Valentine's at the Musicals concert at Birmingham's Symphony Hall and The Creole Choir of Cuba are at the Town Hall. Both are on Monday.

Birmingham School of Acting's spring season includes Jewish drama A Dybbuk in the main house at The Crescent Theatre, Birmingham, to Saturday. During the same period BSA perform adults' only drama Piano/Forte in the Crescent's Ron Barber Studio.

Masked theatre group Vamos look at nurses during the Second World War with song and dance in Nursing Lives at Wolverhampton's Arena Theatre on Wednesday.

There is a choice of comedy tonight (Thursday) with Freak Like Me presenter Russell Kane at The Slade Rooms, Wolverhampton, Mock The Week irregular Zoe Lyons at Brum's Glee Club and John Shuttleworth at Birmingham Town Hall.

TORQUAY & THE WILDS OF DARTMOOR
Mon 21st Mar to Fri 25th Mar
LIMITED OFFER

With its palm-lined promenades, international marina and stunning bays, Torquay is one of Britain's most stylish resorts. The comfortable Nethway Hotel offers a pool, spacious garden and is close to the beach.

Our first excursion takes in the scenery of the Dartmoor National Park with its rugged, rolling moorland and stunning wildlife. We also call at the historical maritime city of Plymouth.

Our second excursion is a short stop at the attractive cathedral city of Exeter.

Anna Paquin and Rachel Blanchard in a scene from Open House

Open House (18)
DESPITE the prominence of True Blood stars Anna Paquin and Stephen Moyer on the cover, they only feature on screen briefly as victims in Open House.

Perhaps Miss Paquin and her screen and real life partner Moyer were showing support for her brother Andrew Paquin, who directs this slow moving but efficient slasher thriller.

The main trio are Rachel Blanchard (from TV's Clueless) who as divorcee Alice is held prisoner in her own home by a psycho couple (Tricia Helfer from Battlestar Galactica and the quietly intense Brian Geraghty) after an 'open house' viewing to sell her home results in a killer hiding in her basement.

The gruesome twosome – a true nympho-maniac and her dominated partner in crime – stab and slash every potential rescuer – but then Alice attempts to form a relationship with her male captor.

It's fairly predictable stuff but well done.

However, the main interest for True Blood fans will be hearing Moyer using his native English accent rather than the southern drawl he adopts for HBO's saucy vampire thriller.

Takers (12)
This heist thriller reckons it's slick, stylish and cool, but derivative, clichéd and boring would be better adjectives.

A tough detective, played by Matt Dillon on auto-pilot, will not rest until he brings a gang of cocky bank robbers – including Paul Walker from Fast & Furious, Tip 'Ti' Harris from TV's Entourage and Hayden Christensen from various Star Wars movies – to justice.

You've probably seen this story done before but much better featuring Pacino or De Niro.

Both movies are also available on Blu-ray.

Goodnight Mister Tom, Wolverhampton Grand Theatre

MICHELLE Magorian's much-loved children's book about a wartime evacuee and the grumpy old man who takes him in has great appeal, as shown by the near full house on opening night.

Thankfully, playwright David Wood and director Angus Jackson do it justice.

From the opening, as a line of children sent to rural Dorset to avoid the London blitz march along to their new billets to the sound of Gracie Fields song Wish Me Luck, the play establishes a past era where children say 'wizad' and the GP was likely a heavy smoker. Oliver Ford Davies is gently impressive as the gruff but kind-hearted Mister Tom, a man wounded by the loss of his wife and child many years before, who recognises a kindred spirit in timid young William Beech (excellent young actor Oliver Tritton Wheeler on Press night), whose bruises reveal his mother's abuse. All she sends with him is a Bible and a belt to beat him with. Mister Tom's dog, Sammy, is represented very effectively in all his sniffing, tail-wagging canine character by puppeteer Laura Cubitt.

There is a fine ensemble to play the village children and community stalwarts and Max Longmuir shone as ebullient and erudite new best friend Zach. Matters take a grim turn when William is called back to London by his mother, the set clanking into a change from bright open stage to the boy's dungeon-like London abode.

Aoife Kavanagh's Mrs Beech is all the more chilling, played not as a clear-cut villain but as a woman who is clearly seriously mentally ill. When Tom and William are finally reunited, it is hard to prevent a lump in the throat or a tear in the eye.

This is the first production from The Children's Touring Partnership, which aims to present high quality children's and family drama. They have certainly succeeded with this play. It continues until Saturday.

Leon Burakowski

Magic of Motown, The Grand Theatre

AN electric atmosphere was created from start to finish for this show.

It had a packed out audience of all ages on their feet for a well-deserved standing ovation.

A superb band captured the distinctive Detroit sound to perfection, recreating all-time favourites from The Temptations, The Four Tops, Diana Ross and The Supremes, Marvin Gaye and Stevie Wonder and many more.

A wonderful Jackson Five medley received roars of appreciation from the audience.

The fabulous male harmonies and stunning female vocals had the audience clapping along to hit after hit, Stop, In the Name of Love, I'll Be There and My Girl to name a few.

With more than 16 dazzling costume changes, slick choreography and its fast moving pace, this lavish production delivered a memorable evening out.

Les Jowett

Micky Flanagan, Town Hall, Birmingham

SOMEWHERE there's a mum and dad with a lot of explaining to do.

Cockney comic Micky Flanagan went through a whole host of topics during his sell-out Town Hall show, some of them not necessarily for the ears of the young girl that had been brought along by her parents. There was a lot of adult and sexual content in the show, not to mention the language.

However, on the sixth date of his Out Out tour, Flanagan had the whole crowd in fits of laughter throughout, regaling tales of his time as a teacher, of growing up in the East End, of previous relationships and of his wife and child.

He added that while most comedians had a catchphrase, he was hoping his Cockney gait would become his catchwalk.

Important questions were answered such as why teenage pregnancies are on the rise, and while Flanagan doesn't tell 'Joke Jokes', he can no doubt spin a yarn.

Mark Shipp

Chess, Birmingham Hippodrome

THIS was no darnce disaster, darling!

Famous for songs One Night in Bangkok and I Know Him So Well, the musical by Tim Rice and Abba's Björn and Benny has been choreographed by Strictly Come Dancing's Craig Revel Horwood.

It tells the story of two chess masters battling it out for the world championships, while at the same time fighting for the love of the same woman.

Costumes were both extravagant and raunchy, and the way in which the chess pieces danced around the board was mesmerising.

A fine cast of West End stars has been assembled, with performances by Daniel Koek and Shona White among the highlights. Poppy Tierney has a fantastic voice and deserved a bigger part. An initial problem with the male cast's diction was rectified for the second half and led to a rousing finale. It runs until April 12.

Reviews: games

Dead Space 2 (18, EA)

IT'S basically Resident Evil in space though developers Visceral have taken the space ship location of Dead Space and expanded it to a whole city, known as The Sprawl.

Taking elements from the games Aliens vs Predator and Resident Evil, plus a whole slew of horror and sci-fi movie influences – chiefly Alien and The Thing – DS2 efficiently delivers the thrills and chills as survivor Isaac Clarke (we now see what he looks like), still haunted by visions of his dead girlfriend, must battle an onslaught of gruesome new Necromorphs.

These most unpleasant aliens use the bodies of their victims to warp and morph into monstrous creatures, including acid pukers and zombie vampire babies. Not nice. There are a range of difficulty levels, with the top level being insanely hardcore, and you can play as the Necromorphs in multi-player mode.

It's tougher than the original and more time-consuming for those determined to get to the end. But by the time you've offed the zillionth Necromorph, you might start to yearn for the more rounded game experience of a Fallout or BioShock.

Reviewed on Xbox 360 this game is also available for PC and PS3.

Little Big Planet 2 (7, Sony)

Still one of the best reasons to buy a PS3, the Little Big Planet franchise steps up a gear with the iconic Sackboy now able to fashion all sorts of games, not just the 2D platformers of the original LBP. It allows the gamer to bring their own ingenuity to this colourful universe, surely the way to go in a gaming world where too often the experience is still 'on rails'.

Once again, Stephen Fry provides the voice over as the Story Mode takes you through eight worlds and around 30 levels, punctuated by bonus levels inspired by other game styles.

Then begins the business of creating your own levels via the level editor. It's a steep learning curve but stick with it to get the most out of this game. As for Sackboy, isn't it time he got a few more powers... maybe that will come in Little Big Planet 3?

VAUXHALL

Warranty covers lifetime ownership of first registered keeper. 100,000 mile limit. Offer available to all Vauxhall passenger cars (this offer does not apply to car derived vans). Terms and conditions apply.

FOLLOWING on from the success of the Takuya Special Edition Range introduced in mid-2010 for a limited period, Mazda is launching five 2011 'Takuya' models across the Mazda2, Mazda3 and Mazda6 line-ups with a total production volume of nearly 4,000 units.

The generously equipped Takuya models incorporate features normally only available with top-of-the-range derivatives.

Also displaying extra visual appeal with attractive pricing, the Takuya quintet is on sale now, offering Mazda customers great added value.

Sporty

Mark Cameron, sales director, Mazda UK, said: "The 2011 Mazda Takuya range offers buyers genuine exclusivity, evocative sports styling and enhanced equipment, while representing fantastic value for money."

"Previous special edition Mazda models have proved hugely popular, selling fast and boasting impressive residual values."

All Mazda Takuya models are also available with VAT fixed at the 2010 rate - this offer applies to the retail list price and excludes all factory fitted and dealer fitted options.

Priced from £11,940 on the road, the Mazda2 1.3-litre five-door Takuya is the entry point into the 2011 special edition range.

With a price tag just £110 more than the Tamara model, this Takuya boasts the addition of front fog lights, black sports trim, rear electric windows, automatic climate-control air conditioning, a Parrot Bluetooth hands-free kit and a new rear bumper sports trim - to offer truly remarkable value.

Hatch

Standard equipment also includes 16-inch alloy wheels, a sports styling kit (incorporating a rear spoiler and side skirts) and sports headlights.

The interior benefits from side and curtain airbags, a trip computer, leather steering wheel and gear knob, steering wheel remote audio controls and four audio speakers.

For 2011 the Mazda2 Takuya is available in a choice of five colours, including the new Burgundy Red Mica.

Powered by a 1.3-litre, 84PS engine, the Mazda2 Takuya is a lively performer that is also remarkably frugal. It accelerates to 62mph in 13.6 seconds, while recording 55.4mpg (combined cycle) and producing just 119g/km of CO2.

Consumers requiring a larger but equally agile hatchback will find the 105ps, 1.6-litre Mazda3 Takuya an ideal car. Costing £1,145 more than the TS model on which it is based, this Takuya boasts specification that includes 17-inch alloy wheels, sports styling kit, front fog and LED rear lights, plus automatic dusk-sensing lights and rain-sensing wipers.

Family

Inside, there is automatic dual-zone climate control air conditioning, black sports interior trim, heated front sports seats, an integrated Bluetooth system, a six-disc CD changer and leather covered steering wheel and gear knob.

Priced from just £16,695 the Mazda3 Takuya represents excellent value for money and promises low running costs with a combined fuel economy figure of 43.5mpg and low-for-class 149g/km of CO2 emissions. Buyers with bigger families, will find Mazda6 Takuya special edition models available in three different guises: a 2.0-litre 155ps five-door (£20,495), 2.2D 163ps five-door (£21,675) and 2.2D 163ps Estate (£22,325).

For £1,050 more than the TS models, all three variants benefit from the fitment of 18-inch alloy wheels, a sports grille, front fog lights, privacy glass and dusk-sensing headlights.

The interior features an alloy pedal set, half-leather heated seats, auto-dimming rear view mirror, dual-zone automatic climate control air conditioning, an integrated Bluetooth system and a six-disc CD changer.

A choice of four metallic, mica or pearlescent paint colours is offered free of charge.

Saxons finish just short in quagmire

STOURBRIDGE SAXONS went down to Sedgley Park, battling their hosts and the worst of the Manchester weather. Persistent rain left standing water on several parts of a pitch which quickly became a quagmire after play began, writes Tim Evershed. Yet both sides managed to put on an entertaining game.

Sedgley Park 19
Stourbridge 14

Stourbridge fell behind early in the match after their hosts took advantage of two quick penalties to set up a five-metre lineout from which they drove over prop Daniel Birchall. The rest of the half was all Stourbridge and they dominated in the scrum and maul. That superiority earned them a string of penalties, three slotted by Alistair Bressington for a 9-7 lead. From a chargedown Sedgley centre Richard Wainwright collected on halfway and ran under the posts to give his side a 14-9 lead at the interval. Early second-half pressure set up Michael Dutton for an easy try that extended that lead to 19-9. Stourbridge were given hope when Matt Riley was sent to the sin bin and during that 10 minutes Liam Wordley was driven over from a lineout drive. But the missed conversion forced Stourbridge to run late penalties rather than take kickable shots. Good defence kept them out.

Best of the season as Hawks wing in with nine

Girls League
Gornal Girls 0 Halas Hawks 9
HALAS HAWKS under-12s girls turned in their most impressive performance of the season in this cup game.

In the first half, they scored goals through Bethan Bryan (2) and Sophie Heaselgrave as well as hitting the post twice and creating numerous other chances. Halas began the second half slowly, but went on to score further goals through Louise Tomlins (2), Beth Bryan, Lucy Heaselgrave, Amy Plimmer and Isabelle Loveridge.

This was an excellent team performance with the defence, led by Elizabeth Thomas, also playing its part.

Boys League
Halesowen Town 1
Halas Hawks East 1

The under-nines East fell behind early on when the home side scored after a corner.

Halas came more into the game as the first half continued and equalised from Oliver Miller, who put the ball away after harrying a defender into an error.

Both teams competed well in the second half but found the respective keepers in good form.

Halas players of the match were Josh Smith & Tom Baker.

Kewford Eagles South 0
Halas Hawks East 3

The under-10s East were rarely threatened in a game they controlled from the start. After missing several chances Halas finally went ahead shortly before half-time with a cross-come-shot from Joshua Parsons.

The second half followed a similar pattern and the second goal came after the Kewford keeper spilled a long-range Jayden Wyman shot which Joshua Parsons slotted into the net.

James Rigby scored the third Halas goal from close range.

Hasbury Rangers 4
Halas Hawks 1

Josh Horton got the under-11s' goal in their defeat away to Hasbury.

Halas Hawks West 3 Perton 3
A see-saw match ended with Perton scoring the final goal to earn a draw against the Halas under-12s West.

The home side created numerous chances in the first half but took only one, through Joe Price. Perton started the second period on top and were soon leading, but goals from Nathan Postin and their player of the match Jamie Theodosi gave them the advantage once more before the late equaliser.

West Hagley 4 Halas Hawks 3
A goal 10 minutes from time condemned the under-13s to defeat in a lively match.

Hagley scored within a minute of the kick-off only for Jack Guest to level. A lively Halas team then laid siege to the Hagley goal with Tom Bagley guiding the ball over the line to make it 2-1.

Hagley equalised but Halas were ahead at the break after Liam Holmes' inswinging corner found its way into the net. Halas were pinned back in the second half, Hagley equalising and then sealing the win. Halas player of the match was Tom Bagley.

Warley Borough 1
Halas Hawks 3

The under-14s continued their winning ways with a victory against Warley Borough. Halas goals came from Kane Campbell, Jake Walley and Dan Willetts.

Castle Cobras 1 Halas Hawks 4
A Guy Millward hat trick set up the under-16s for a 4-1 win against Castle Cobras. Ben Hughes scored the fourth.

Juniors pick up speeding tickets

HALESOWEN swimmers exceeded all expectations in the Redditch B junior friendly gala.

Saturday's event was a B Grade format with no points awarded to swimmers exceeding set time limits.

The Halesowen swimmers landed 26 personal best times out of a possible 32, resulting in 23 "speeding tickets". Despite forfeiting so many points, the team finished third.

Double tickets went to James Cuthbert and Connor Fell in the freestyle and backstroke, Emma Ellwell in the backstroke and breaststroke, Emily Bate in the backstroke and butterfly and Emma Bird and George Westwood in the breaststroke and butterfly.

Tickets were also awarded to Ruby Fell, Kathryn Kelly, Jennifer Wenman and Thomas Benson in the freestyle, India Hanke and Molly Kelly in the backstroke, Lauren Hill, Katy Morrice and Zac Rollason in the breaststroke and Talia Mitchell and Ben Meakin in the butterfly.

Maximum

Swimmers winning maximum points were James Westwood in the backstroke, Zac Rollason in the butterfly and Jennifer Wenman and Rhys Richards in the freestyle.

The relay teams were unbeatable, winning maximum points in every event and included Indu Appanna, Emma Baker, Kitty Luscombe, Paige Robbins, Lila Shaaban, Rachel Weller, Sam Bailey, Jakob Baker, Daniel Cororan, George Davies, Mark Laing, James Perry, Jack Simpson, and Jack Vale.

Several swimmers were representing the club for the first time: Emily Bate, Kathryn Kelly, Talia Mitchell, Katy Morrice, Paige Robbins, Lila Shaaban, Sam Bailey, Thomas Benson, Ben Meakin, Jakob Baker and Jack Simpson.

Scores: Redditch 178pts, Worcester 173, Halesowen 161, Haden Hill 147, Blythe Barracudas 142.

Dudley hit for six

Dudley 0 Bloxwich 6
DUDLEY ladies hockey were heavily beaten at home by Bloxwich.

Amie Lawrence opened the scoring before captain Jill Ricketts put a flick in the bottom corner.

Goals for Lawrence and Nic Shut-Nullis made it four while Charlotte Mincher ran riot down the left and scored twice.

The Halesowen Chronicle, a Midland News Association Ltd publication, printed by the company at Wolverhampton on Thursday, February 10, 2011.

HALESOWEN GET THEIR PRIDE BACK

Flood of points as DK hit back to win

Halesowen Town 1 Worcester City 2
HALESOWEN shook off the hangover from Saturday's 8-0 defeat to give a more encouraging display three days later.

They were unable to reach the Worcester-shire Senior Cup final, but played well to lead at half-time against a strong Worcester side.

Early on, home captain Michael McGrath lost out to former Yeltz player Mark Danks but his resulting cross flew across goal, writes David Johnson.

Stunned Yeltz are thrashed

Halesowen Town 0
Evesham 8

HAPLESS Halesowen were ripped apart in their worst ever Southern League defeat as Evesham dished out an eight-goal thrashing.

David Accam scored a quick-fire hat-trick for Evesham, writes David Johnson.

The rout began when a mix-up between home goalkeeper Simon Flower and central defender Jemiah Richards allowed the ball to bounce through for Marcus Palmer who netted on 18 minutes.

Struggling centre-back Emmanuel Ibhaden turned Isaac Shaze's cross beyond Flower into his own net for a 29th minute own goal.

Shaze got the third; Accam's low shot beat Flower and Shaze made it five before the break.

Accam completed the treble and Sam Mensah slotted the eighth.

Home goalkeeper Mark Fullwood, returning from a long injury absence, then made a good save from Marc McGregor in the eighth minute.

The Blue Square North visitors, having already beaten Kidderminster Harriers, had most of the possession in the first period but failed to create any real danger.

Scrambled

A 22nd-minute corner was scrambled clear by the Halesowen defence after Danks' free-kick was deflected behind goal.

Late in the half, Halesowen earned their first corner after Justin Nisbett's 43rd minute shot was deflected past the post.

The Yeltz took a shock lead in first-half injury time with a 25-yard shot from substitute Emmanuel Ibhaden taking a bounce to nestle into the net after deceiving former Yeltz goalkeeper Dean Coleman.

City levelled in the 53rd minute when Simon Richman crossed from the right for Danks to clip home from close range.

Kevin O'Connor headed in the winner.

Lichfield 26
Dudley Kingswinford 52

DUDLEY Kingswinford survived a scare for the second consecutive week but eventually powered through to see off Lichfield at Cooke Fields.

The hosts led by 15-0 and 21-10 but DK, who narrowly overcame Camp Hill at Heathbrook a week earlier, kept their cool to maintain their 100 per cent record.

DK made a number of changes to their team with the returning Stefan Shillingford, Al Francis and Matt Farrington all included, writes Ian Bratt.

From the kick-off the blustery wind played its part and Lichfield enjoyed early possession, converting a fourth-minute penalty to start the scoring.

Held

Gareth Bown saw a penalty held up in the wind as DK struggled to make their mark – not a problem Lichfield were experiencing as they took an 8-0 lead through an unconverted Richard Burton try.

Against the wind DK were struggling to wrestle possession from the home side and another score duly arrived on 20 minutes when fly-half Josh Massey crossed and converted his own try.

A much-needed DK response came soon after and it was captain Pete Knight who provided it after the pack drove to the line.

Just a few minutes later the visitors were three again, with Stefan Thorp touching down although, as with Knight's try, the conversion failed and DK were still slightly adrift at 15-10. Back came resurgent Lichfield to extend their advantage with two Josh Massey penalties to make it 21-10 at half-time.

DK's 16-game winning run looked to be under threat but, with the wind behind them, they produced their very best form in the second half and ran in 42 points.

Rolling

A Bown penalty got the ball rolling, followed soon after by a try from the same player.
